

Carmignac Gestion strengthens its fixed income team

Rose Ouahba becomes Head of Fixed Income Team. She will still be in charge of the fixed income portfolio of Carmignac Patrimoine, managed by Charles Zerah during her absence.

Charles Zerah remains responsible for the management of Carmignac Global Bond.

Carlos Galvis has taken full responsibility of the management of Carmignac Sécurité since April 1st, in addition to the management of the Carmignac Cash Plus. The management process of Carmignac Sécurité, as well as its objectives, remains unchanged. Carlos Galvis has been successfully in charge of the management of Carmignac Sécurité since last December during Rose Ouahba's maternity leave.

Keith Ney, former Global Analyst at Carmignac Gestion, becomes Head of Credit.

Caroline Slama, previously Global Analyst on the equity side, is joining the fixed income team as Credit Analyst.

About Carmignac Gestion

Founded in 1989 by Edouard Carmignac, Carmignac Gestion is one of the leading independent asset management companies in Europe today. Its share capital is entirely held by its management team and staff. In this way, the company's long-term viability is ensured by a stable shareholding structure, reflecting its spirit of independence. This fundamental value is of utmost importance to the company as it ensures the freedom required for successful and renowned portfolio management.

With more than 50 billion EUR in assets, Carmignac Gestion has developed a comprehensive range of 18 funds across all asset classes - equities, bonds and multi-strategy, as well as mandate offering. Our funds are actively marketed in 11 European countries: France, Luxembourg, Switzerland, Belgium, Italy, Germany, Spain, Austria, The Netherlands, Sweden and United Kingdom. Within the context of its international development, Carmignac Gestion has a subsidiary in Luxembourg and two offices in Madrid and Milan, and recently registered its range of products for professional investors in Singapore.
